Diocese to host inspiring Rosary Rally on Nov. 16 at Cathedral of Saint Peter

SCRANTON — In a world filled with noise and distractions, Nancy Laird finds peace and comfort in praying the rosary. “I feel like I’m holding onto Mary’s hand when I’m praying the rosary,” she says. “The same is true for Ann Laird. The rosary has provided a sense of calm, a sense of purpose, and I feel like I’m holding onto the Blessed Mother,” Laird added. Other parishioners and members of the North Scranton parish, who are parishioners in their own right, have dedicated themselves to praying the rosary together and pray is a place
